

One Willow Bridge Road

Vail, Colorado

Located in the heart of Vail Village is One Willow Bridge Road, a luxurious residential development that “will offer a unique combination of unparalleled location and impressive, high-end amenities,” says owner and developer Robert M. McNichols.

The elegant residences will evoke a sense of Old Europe and will feature fine furnishings, gourmet kitchens, spacious baths and state-of-the-art security and electronics. Owners will enjoy the private, infinity-edge pool and hot tubs overlooking Gore Creek, secured and heated underground parking with direct elevator access to each floor and on-mountain ski lockers. Ownership also includes all of the amenities and guest services provided by the Sonnenalp Resort of Vail, including valet parking, concierge, room service, housekeeping and preferred reservation privileges at the golf club.

Residences at One Willow Bridge Road are priced from $3.6 million to $7.4 million. Fractional ownership is also available starting at $480,000.

Tres Marías

Morelia, Michoacán, Mexico

Not all luxury golf communities in Mexico are about sea-splashed finishing holes and oceanfront homes. Tres Marías in Morelia, Michoacán, Mexico, brings first-class golf and real estate to Mexico’s heartland. Located two and a half hours from Guadalajara, Morelia’s colonial brio is a fitting complement to the forest-shrouded Tres Marías, a 500-plus-acre residential development taking form around the LPGA-christened, 27-hole Jack Nicklaus Signature Golf Course. All homeowners are given a golf membership, which also provides access to the community’s clubhouse, equestrian club, spa, beauty salon, swimming pools, tennis, basketball and sand volleyball courts, soccer fields, game room, fitness center, three restaurants and bars. Homesites are priced between $100,000 and $1 million.
